

I fully support the Do Not Call bill and do not wish to see it overturned. My house is so much better off without telemarketers interrupting every second of peace we have. Please do not allow the pressure from telemarketing firms to overturn the only protection we have against these groups.